

Celebrating Activism

Hear activists tell their stories—and why they do what they do.
Hear why activism is so vital in today's world.
Learn how you can become an activist—or a more effective activist.
Join us at the Activist Forum:

Sunday, Oct. 29
12:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Philadelphia Museum of Art, Perelman Building,
2525 Pennsylvania Ave, Philadelphia, PA 19130
Pay-What-You-Wish Admission.

Join us for a forum hosted by the Granny Peace Brigade Philadelphia in collaboration with Philadelphia Assembled, bringing together activists and potential activists to share information and expertise, and inspire the activism of the future

Panel includes:

- Fran Fulton, ADAPT
- Reverend Gregory Holston, Exec. Director, POWER
- Sonia Sanchez, internationally known poet, activist, writer, professor
- A member of Youth United for Change
- Ismael Jiminez, Philadelphia Black History
Collaborative
- Joan Kosloff, Granny Peace Brigade Philadelphia

Moderator

Helen Gym, Philadelphia City Councilmember

A large group of activist organizations will share their information and talk to participants about what they do. It is an opportunity for attendees to learn about various organizations, and sign up to work with one or more.

Philadelphia Assembled is a project initiated by artist Jeanne van Heeswijk in collaboration with stakeholders from across the city and the Philadelphia Museum of Art. The views expressed by individual participants or in materials developed as part of Philadelphia Assembled are representative of the project's collective conception and production and are not, necessarily, the views of the Museum or any other individual involved.
