

Disability Pride Week 2018 was a HUGE Success!

Disability Pride Flag Raising

We kicked off Disability Pride Week 2018 at City Hall with the Disability Pride flag raising on Monday, June 11th! Charles Horton (center) of the Mayor's Commission on People with Disabilities, began the celebration with a speech about how Disability Pride week fosters inclusivity. He was joined by several council members and sponsors, as well as Vicki Landers who runs Disability Pride.

Photos by Mary Jo Rohrer

The Rebound: A Wheelchair Basketball Documentary

PhillyCAM hosted 2 screenings of The Rebound on Tuesday, June 12th! Steve Serio, Paralympic Gold Medalist was there for a Q&A after the film. Thanks for coming out, Steve!

Photos by Maggie Long

Art Day to get Parade Ready

We decorated flags and posters at City Hall on Wednesday, June 13th to prepare for the Disability Pride parade on Saturday. Spiral Q was even there with a screen printer so people could decorate shirts!

Photos by Mary Jo Rohrer

Disability Pride Parade

On Saturday, June 16th, we paraded from National Constitution Center down Market Street to City Hall. There were vendor tables, food trucks, entertainment, and lots of celebration! We are excited to keep this momentum alive all year long. Thank you to everyone who participated! Shout-out to Vicki Landers for her hard work and dedication to Disability Pride Week! Photos by Mary Jo Rohrer, Rachel Hooper, & Natalie Francis.

Check out even more pictures and videos from Disability Pride Week 2018 on our website & social media accounts:

Donate